THE AFFAIR AT DEEP CREEK. Nothing of special interest additional to my despatch yesterday regarding the affair at Deep creek has oped liself. Only one man was killed, instead of three, as reported in my despatch, and the wounded and will not exceed twenty. The enemy had instry, artillery and cavalry, and it was only by their dden dash that they got the advantage of our mea porartly as they did. Growing out of this affair all erts of rumors have prevailed here to-day. One story it that the enemy hold Suifolk, and another that hold the town, and that closely fronting pickets, outside the town, are those of nemy. A deserter is reported to state that the rebels have withdrawn through Gatesville and South Mills -the route by which they came. But clashing with e rumors is another that the en my is massing in strong force and preparing to march on Portsmouth, which town they are going to take, and after that come MOVEMENTS OF GENERAL KILPATRICK-DEFENOS OF RICE

General Kilpatrick came to the fortress to day from cording to his statement) labor under a de-lusion. This guard may not be visible to the naked ye of escaping prisoners and deserters; but, on the adrance of any force from this side, they spring up, full panoplied, from the ground or a mewhere else, like the sythological men germinated by sowing dragons' teeth,

They were deficient in artillery, as the result proved, but protected as the enemy were, behind their earthworks, and the compressed column with which their further na-vance would have to be made, compelled the abandon their project or slaughter of nearly their entire force had they attempted to carry out their prop sed programme. As it was they managed in their visit to inflict a good deal of damage on the enemy and make their late presence a prolonged and painful subject of memory to them.

EXECUTION OF A TRAITOR.

Thomas Abrahams, a private of company G. One Hundred and Thirty-hinth New York regiment, was executed to day at York row. It will be remembered that he was charged with giving information to private Wm. Boyle, troop N, First New York Mounted Rilles, a prisoner, convicted of murder and under soutence of death, regarding the late movement on Richmond; and, after giving such information, with letting private Boyle escape, who gave the information to the enemy, thereby frustrating the movement. No sympathy was expressed for the condemned man.

atill lies in the Elizabeth river where she was run into two nights ago. It is understood that efforts will be speedily made to raise her.

NORFOLK (Va.), March 5, 1864. A little affair occurred this morning at Cherry Stone which has caused some excitement at the Fortress. About twenty rebels suddenly made their appearance in rowbosts, having come, as was afterwards ascertained, from a small schooner which had lain at anchor during night previous near the lighthouse, and captured the the night previous near the lighthouse, and captured the sug boat Titun, in the employ of government, and run a side-whel sie mer lebus, which was run by private parties to and from Batilmore. The rebels came armed to the teeth, and of course the unarmed crews had to suirender themselves and their vessels. They took from Captain Webster, of the steamer lolas, $1,100 in green-backs, compelled him to bond his vessel in $20,000, and let him and his crew go, except three negroes, whom they took along with them. It is supposed that they have run the Titan into the Rappahanneck river. She is capable of conversion into a gunboat, and it she remains in rebel possession will make a valuable addition to their naval service. Captain Shaw commanded the Titan. He and four men were taken prisoners.

The Operatic Libel Suit. CAN A MARRIED WOMAN BE ARRESTED FOR DEBT COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-CHAMBERS.

Before Judge Daly.

MARCO 7.— Innic Wilson vs. Henrielta Sulver.—This was a motion to discharge the defendant from arrest for debt. The descedant, it appears, was sued for slander by a chambermaid named Annie Wilson, and a judgment ered against her in the Marine Court for $262. An ex cution was issued against her property but it was re turned unsatisfied by the Sheriff. An execution was then med against the person of the fair defendant; but in the meantime she was united in matrimony with flanibal Biachi, and, having no separate estate of her own, the bal Blachi, and, having no separate estate of her own, the judgment still remains unsatisfied.

Mir. Gaibraith read the affidavit of the defendant, whereis she states that she was lawfully married to Signor Bach on the List alt. by his Honor the Mayor; that she has no separate estate of her own out of which to pay the judgment in question, and prays to be released from arrest on the above grounds.

Mr Bright, consel for the plaintiff, theo read the affidavit of annie Wilson, in which she stated that the defendant was an operatic singer, in the employment of Max Maretzek, and had an annual salary of $6,000, payable fortnightly, in advance, and was therefore fully qualified to pay the amount of the judgment.

Mr. Gaibraith took the ground that, as the situation of the defendant had changed by her marriage, she was not liable to arrest on a civil process. He quoted from Burrows' fractice, page 168, and Bayley's Reports, page 353, where it was ruled that a married woman should be discharged when arrested on a capias. He also referred to Abbott's Reports, page 369, and beld that under the present circumstances, the husband could not be deprived of the services of his wife on an execution for debt.

Judge Daly said he would take the papers and postpone the matter until Wednesday, when the counsel on both sides could offer further authorities on the subject.
